

Esri Ireland named one of the Best Small Workplaces in Ireland 2019

Members of the Esri Ireland team pictured at the Great Place to Work awards ceremony which took place at the Clayton Hotel, Burlington Road, Dublin on Wednesday 27th February.

Esri Ireland, has been officially recognised as one of the Best Workplaces in Ireland in 2019. Esri Ireland ranked 2nd in the Best Small Workplaces in Ireland at the 17th annual Great Place to Work Best Workplaces in Ireland awards in the Clayton Hotel on Burlington Road, Dublin on Wednesday 27th February.

This is the third year Esri Ireland has been named as a top Irish workplace, rising from 6th place in 2018 and up from 13th place in 2017. The ranking is assessed through Great Place to Work's robust 'Trust Index©' employee survey and a thorough 'Culture Audit©' assessment of organisations' policies and practices.

Paul Synnott, Director & Country Manager, Esri Ireland said: "We are delighted to be recognised as one of the Best Workplaces in Ireland for three consecutive years and to have jumped up the rankings to 2nd place this year is immensely satisfying for the whole team. We're deeply proud of our workplace culture and employee wellbeing is a top priority for us. Everyone in the Esri Ireland team has played a huge role in achieving this fantastic award."

John Ryan, CEO of Great Place to Work® Ireland, commented:

“Securing a place on the list of Best Workplaces in Ireland is a greater achievement than ever before. Today’s workplace is a partnership, creating the future in tandem. It’s inclusive and has diversity at its core. It’s a really exciting place to be, and I’d like to congratulate each and every organisation that has achieved the goal of creating truly sustainable, high trust workplaces all across Ireland. We all deserve a Great Place to Work: and now we can have it!”